

National Speakers:

1: Jordan Baker Journalist Chief Reporter of SMH

Jordan Baker is Chief Reporter of The Sydney Morning Herald. Previously Education Editor. Jordan is a passionate advocate and highly respected in her field. With a wide range of publications including The Age, The Sydney Morning Herald, and KRON-TV, Jordan's articles cover various topics such as community events, crime, transportation, and social issues.

2: Associate Professor Belinda von Mengerson Dean ACU

Associate Professor Belinda von Mengersen is an advocate for women in STEM in her dual roles as Strathfield Campus Dean and Discipline Lead in Design, Innovation, and Technologies at Australian Catholic University, she is dedicated to breaking down barriers and fostering inclusivity on campus and in Technologies education. Through her work in course design, curriculum revision, and as a technical advisor for syllabus reform, she works to eliminate gender bias and challenge stereotypes, creating a more equitable environment. Inspired by her grandmother, a community leader who established vital support networks for women in regional areas, including a women's refuge, Associate Professor von Mengersen continues to pave the way for women in STEM, empowering them to reach their full creative potential.

3: Sweta Gupta BPWS President

President BPWS and passionate advocate to strengthen the future of all women and girls.

INTERNATIONAL SPEAKERS

Rozaini Nawawi, inaugural President of the Federation of

BPW Malaysia (2021-2024)

Rozaini Nawawi, the inaugural President of the Federation of BPW Malaysia (2021-2024)

President of the BPW Putrajaya club (2018-2021) and Member of the Standing Committee United Nations (2021- 24) and underscores her commitment to advancing Malaysian women in business. The Federation of BPW Malaysia received The Most Outstanding Country Award 2023 at the BPW Asia-Pacific Regional Conference in Bahrain (November 6th to 8th, 2023).

Francesca Burack,

BPW New York & UN
Committee

Francesca Burack, CEO/President of Fearless Talent Development, Inc., is a renowned advocate for fearlessness, particularly among women, - roles as a global speaker, author, advisor, and leader. A UN representative, championing women's equality and parity on global platforms. Francesca's accolades include recognitions from the New York Chamber of Commerce and Industry, the U.S. Small Business Administration, and the White House Conference on Small Business.

Dr. Meena Karna, BPW Nepal

& UN Committee

Dr. Meena Karna has a Professional Degree in Financial Analysis and Research writing. Nepal Bank Ltd. Manager. She was awarded a Degree of Philosophy in Microfinance and Women Empowerment, a master's degree in business administration (MBA in Finance) and Public Administration (MPA in Human Resources). Recently she was selected as a member of the Standing Committee of the United Nations from BPW, Nepal.